Feeding

As part of our service and included in the price, we provide the food for your cat. We feed all our furry guests Royal Canin, a very high quality premium product which has been scientifically proven to provide all the nutritional requirements your cat needs for optimum health and vitality.

The range of Royal Canin products we feed are as follows:-

STERILISED dry food which will be suitable for the majority of cats who have no particular issues and are in good general condition. It is also invaluable for maintaining a good weight for those cats who tend to be on the larger side shall we say!

SENSIBLE dry food for optimal digestive health. Some cats have a digestive sensitivity that leads to the production of soft stools. SENSIBLE contains an exclusive combination of nutrients for optimal digestive safety and prebiotics for intestinal flora balance.

KITTEN dry food for cats under the age of one year. Totally balanced for a growing cats needs.

In addition to dry food, we also supplement with various Royal Canin soft foods, again catering for cats individual needs. We also provide Purina Pro One, Ultima and Purina Cat Chow should you prefer

Please Note:

There is no reduction in the daily cost of your cats stay if you wish to provide their food. Exceptions to this are for those cats who are on a specific veterinary diet. In these circumstances, we ask that you provide their food in the usual way.

About your Cat

Terms and Conditions

Your cat must be micro chipped or tattooed

You are required to provide us with your cats vaccination card. This must be up to date.
If you do not wish us to feed your cat while with us, then you must bring sufficient food to cover the entire length of their stay.

All owners must declare all information concerning any issues, problems which may affect your cats behaviour, health or safety during its stay. We cannot be held responsible for any incidents that may occur as a result of a lack of disclosure or information.

Cats must be treated for fleas, ticks and worms prior to their stay with us. If your cat is found to have parasites during their stay we will treat accordingly and the charge will be added to the stay invoice.

We are happy to administer any medication your cat requires provided that your cat is amenable to being handled.

If your cat has a serious heart condition or other life threatening illness which could lead to death during its stay, the owner discharges all responsibility from us. Please discuss this with us when making your booking.

We will administer medications free of charge except injections which may incur a charge.

If your cat requires a surgical or medical intervention, the cat owner gives gives his/her consent that we undertake all necessary action concerning the cats health. We will use our own vet and the cost of the visit and treatment will be covered by the owner of the cat.

If your cat has had elective surgery such as neutering, we cannot accept your cat until the stitches have been removed.

Use the space below to add any other information about your cat that you would like us to know about.

Invoicing

The day your cat arrives is charged as the first day regardless of the arrival time.
If you collect your cat before midday on the day of departure there is no charge for that day.

Any services or extra supplies that have arisen during your cats stay will be billed and paid for on the day of collection of your cat at the end of its stay.

Accident and Death

We cannot be held responsible for the death or accidents involving a cat in our care.

Collection and Abandonment

We will only hand over the cat to its owner. If the owner wishes to authorise a third party to collect the cat, the owner must give us the details of the person prior to collection.

The owner of the cat must respect and keep a note of the date and times for drop off and collection of a booked stay. Unless we specify otherwise, the times you have written down on the Booking Form must be adhered to. If you are anticipating being delayed, you must text us to let us know.

Abandonment

The owner of the cat must respect the dates of the booked stay. Any over stay must be indicated to our establishment in order not to treat the cat as abandoned. After more than 8 days without news from its owner, the cat will be deemed as abandoned and we will be within our rights to re-home the cat and action will be taken against the owner to recover costs.

Reservations

A reservation can only be confirmed once we receive the completed Booking Form which must be signed. A confirmation email will then be sent by return.

Cancellations

There are no cancellation fees. We merely ask that you let us know at the earliest opportunity any changes or cancellation of your booking.
